William Pihos is back on the Avenue after three and a half years at the Wall Street Cafe. Orange Avenue welcomes Williams Restaurant back to the drag. Bill Pihos has figured prominently in the growth and development of the city for over thirteen years, first opening the Sanitary Cafe, then Williams Cafe (now the Ritz), and during the hey-day built the once famous Mandarin Inn. Now Bill urges and welcomes all his old friends to his new location where he will serve the same quality food that has identified the name Williams in Orlando for such a long time.

It's the talk of the town—Leon's Beer Garden at 105 North Orange. The big attraction is the free lunch served at all hours. Many have found Leon's the ideal place to lunch thsee hot summer days, that is, a bottle of your favorite brew with the lunch thrown in for good measure is the appropriate midday repast.

A Weekly Feature of the GREETER

$100,000.00 for a fishing rod! Don't get excited, I didn't pay it. That is what it cost Charley Heddon to perfect and produce a new type of steel bait casting rod—that and two years of experiment in order to get a steel rod light as bamboo and with an indefinite guarantee against breakage. It seems all the tackle manufacturers have gone steel-minded. Rod makers are out to decide for all time the question of supremacy of steel over bamboo. That's certainly a tough break for the Japs and the Chinks. At the critical moment when China and Japan were tryingto sell enough bamboo to finance their war, vieing with each other in price cutting in order to buy more planes and machine guns to capture or hold Manchuria, along comes a steel rod that threatens to put the well-known kibosh on the expensive bamboos. It sure is a tough break for the laundrymen and the Japs.

The dry fly man is not necessarily a fool merely because he may try the floating fly at the beginning of the trout season. A number of underwater lures fall under the general heading of wet flies. In larger waters the bucktails are particularly effective for large trout.

For early season casting, when bass are up in shallow waters, surface plugs or semi-surface lures yield the best results. Reel them in slowly. Cork-bodied bass plugs are also very good at this time.

Wisconsin made thirty-two arrests for violation of fishing laws in January with fines ranging up to $50, and imprisonments up to sixty days.

Things are really happening in Orlando again. The old town is taking on new life—tangible evidence to this effect is that the Mandarin Inn at 46 W. Central, whose lights have been dimmed since the days of the Binder boys is being conditioned throughout and will be opened to the public as the Mandarin Club on June 3rd. Not as a regular restaurant nor either as a club but will strike a happy medium to fill a distinct need in the entertainment and every day life of the city.

The Mandarni Club will boast of the only dance floor in downtown Orlando giving the city a metropolitan air and giving to the public an exclusive place to dine, dance and partake of their favorite three decimal two.

on and off the avenue

The local press is to be congratulated on their eulogy of Frances Slater. We have for many months been tellnig our good readers just how it would be to their interest to trade at Mrs. Slater's attractive shop in the San Juan Hotel Building. The success that has come to this shop has not been by chance, but by strict application to a high standard of quality and value insisted upon by its owner. Drop by 20 N. Orange Avenue today and you will find the best in merchandise at surprisingly low prices.

Though annual Dollar Day has come and gone, you do not have to wait another year for a special selling event to get your dollar's worth, if you will but trade at Daniel's Haberdashery. Specializing in shirts, ties and other necessary apparel to sell for a dollar, J. W. Daniels is attracting wide attention to his store at 119 S. Orange Avenue.

The one and only original Thirst Parlor has its doors wide open and is enjoying a rushing business. Drop by 9 South Court Street just opposite the government Post Office the next time you call at Uncle Sam's debt provoking institution. Free lunch and draft beer will be the leading card at the Thirst Parlor operated by O. W. Wilder, but all of the leading American and Cuban bottled beverages are dispersed.

There are very few homes that could not be materially improved by the application of a little paint here and there. With the almost foolproof, quick-drying paints and lacquers designed for home use, house-wives or energetic husbands will find them easy to apply. Drop by Walker and Sons at 33 East Pine Street today. Both Charles and V. H. Walker will be happy to advise with you regarding your requirements.

The Flamingo struck a popular chord when the management announced that three would be no cover charge throughout the summer. Drive out to this popular resort on the Cheney Highway, listen to the music, dance if you choose, drink of our new-found liberty, order sandwiches or a more sumptuous Spanish or chicken dinner if your appetite so bids, and you will only pay for what you eat. An attractive new garden here is a recommended retreat of these hot summer evenings.

Happy days are truly here again is the unanimous opinion of all on the Avenue when Charlie's Place at 17 North Orange next to Postal Telegraph announced that all favorite bottled beer is now on sale and that suds on top will be ready soon. It's a good habit to form early. Drop by Charlie's Place for your steiners, your smokes and your magazines—a three in one stop, so to speak.

SPORTS & RECREATION NEWS

DIAMONDBALL

The Winter Haven team that won the State title last year will be in Orlando next Wednesday night to play Poinsettia and this promises to be the outstanding game of the season so far. Winter Haven and Poinsettia played for the State Championship last year and Winter Haven won 1 to 0 in the 5th and deciding game. The Poinsettia will be out to seek revenge for that defeat.

TENNIS

Several tennis tournaments were stated last week and will continue during the next month. All of the tournaments being Round Robin affairs in which none of the players are elimniated.

The outstanding of this type is the mens round robin single for the Rybolt trophy which will be played Wednesday and Friday of this week at 5:15. The 12 leading players of the city are in this tournament and some good matches are assured.

On Wednesday night at 7:45 there will be a night round robin doubles with 8 men in this tournament.

The ladies are holding a round robin doubles every Friday morning at 8:30 for the 8 leading lady players of Orlando.

Saturday afternoon 3 round robin double tournaments are on the program. At 1:30 the 12 leading players of the city play at Exposition Park while at the same time 12 of the second ranking players engage in the same kind of a tournament.

The 8 leading players of the Waterwitch Club also are holding a tournament on the club court Saturday afternoon at 8:00 P. M.

The Recreation Department is planning a night round robin doubles for the Civic Club players and anyone wishing to enter this should call 6522.

COUNTRY CLUB NOTES

The exceptionally good news coming from the Country Club is the appointment of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Largent to be in charge of the Club house. The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Largent will add much to the gracious atmosphere, and will broaden the reputation of true Southern hospitality such as the club has always strived to maintain.

The Country Club presdient, Jack Brannon, is much elated over the combined being put forth by the House and Membership Committees on a concentrated drive for one hundred new members.

If you have not been riding at the new Country Club Academy, you have missed a real treat. Drive out today and look over the sixteen or more beautifully groomed horses that would be the pride of any knig's stable. If you are a beginner at this are, Mr. W. W. Brown will see that you are properly instructed. Among the ardent horsemen seen daily over the bridal paths are Doctors J. R. Chappel, Gilbert Osincup and Jerry Ruble, and Fenton Sneed and Sam Shiver. All profess it to be a glorious sport, providing you stay on the horse.

DUBSDREAD NEWS

Dubsdread, under the artistic hand of Sam Stoltz, Florida's famous artist builder, is being transformed into one of the finest clubs in the state. Although Sam is giving the new management a general idea as to his plans for redecorating and beautifying, he has been given a free hand in the execution of his work, and when Sam Stoltz is turned loose on a job to do as his artistic spirit moves, we are always assured of a masterpiece.

Drive out to Dubsdread, located at the city limits on the old Dixie Highway, and see for yourself the improvements that are gonig on. First it will remind you of the old boom days, but upon second thought you will realize that Dubsdread is ushering in a new day of prosperity for Orlando.

CHURCH and MAIN BUILDING

MAYER ARCADE the place to TRADE

in case you did'nt know

This business of "beauty is as beauty does" is all right, especially if the beauty takes full advantage of the services of one skilled in the art like Andre of Andre's Beauty Salon in the Church and Main Building. If you expect people to take you at your face value, it is your duty to protect, as well as improve your looks.

The Tax-Payer's League City Comissiomn, in fact everyone, must be behaving themselves these days, as we have not heard from Charles Mayer lately.

We miss the presence of Horace Jacobs these days who with his brother Henry, has been called to Pennsylvania, on account of serious illness of their father.

So far the Church and Main Building is the only structure in town from which the new beer has not been sold, a fact really remarkable.

The Spanish War Veterans see mto be quite active in their new office, and M. D. Bailey, Jr., is seen running hither and yon.

Our friend and neighbor, C. C. Purdue, whose radio shop supplies this neighborhood with the best, and sometimes the worst music, is hailing the virtues of a new Philco Transitone Auto Radio, selling as low as $39.95, installed complete.

The public in general is again complaining of the unpleasant taste to the water supplied by the municipal plant. One does not have to be inconvenienced, so simply call 5172, G. W. Briggs, distributor for Orange City Water, will deliver you a trial bottle of the pure health-giving beverage

Does your dress hang straight, or are you continually fuming and fretting with your clothes because of some slight imperfect fit? If so, we recommend you to consult Mrs. John Todd at 17½ South Orange Avenue. Mrs. Todd will, in an instant, diagnose your trouble and advise the operation necessary to restore your peace of mind.

For many years Greeter readers have been told consistently by Datson Dairies to call 6342 and request grade A pasteurized milk as a matter of health. A statement by Clarence Datson to the effect that their business this spring is far ahead of last year will be of much interest to everyone. Incidentally, Clarence also advised us that in his opinion the new 3.2 will not affect the consumption of milk.

Have you been by the Eola Coffee Company's new plant and sales room at 232 S. Orange Avenue? If not. drop in today. Bob Riddle and his assistants will not only give you an appetizing cup of coffee, but will sell you a pound of their fresh roasted product if you don't watch out, but the Eola habit is a good one, and we recommend it to you.

With hundreds of miles of paved roads in Orange County, costing eight million dollars or less, leave it to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perry to find a stretch unpaved while out driving last week. A drive over a sand road would, ordinarily, be uneventful, but this time all four vessels of their Lincoln sedan mired to the hubs, requiring the Herculean efforts of a score or more of negroes to arrest the car from the clutches of Mother Earth. At least when guests of the Perrydell inquire of good sight-seeing trips to make, there will be one section of road they will be forbidden to traverse.
